

LE GRAY, BEIRUT RECEIVES THE WORLD TRAVEL AWARDS AS LEBANON'S LEADING LUXURY HOTEL

Le Gray, Beirut has been awarded Lebanon's Leading Luxury Hotel by the World Travel Awards during a voting competition that started in February 2019 and ended with the announcement of the results on April 25, 2019.

It was in the presence of the hospitality and tourism leaders in all their segments that the World Travel Awards has organised a grandiose gala dinner at the Warner Bros. World Abu Dhabi to announce the Middle East winners of the 26th World Travel Awards, and in which Lebanon was in the limelight with Le Gray, Beirut grabbing the Lebanon's Leading Luxury Hotel award; adding to the hotel's record of accolades after the prestigious French Villegiature Award of the Best Hotel Pool in the Middle East in 2018 as well as being shortlisted among their best 5 hotels in the Middle East; and the two consecutive World Spa Awards for PureGray, the hotel's spa, as Lebanon's Best Hotel Spa in 2017 and 2018.

On this occasion, the General Manager of the hotel, Mr. Georges Ojeil said: "Success is at the same time a consequence and a reward, and I personally believe it is a journey that starts with a step but whose horizons are unlimited." He also added that "This award, just like the previous ones, is very rewarding to the efforts of a professional team, united and focused not only on success but on distinction and excellence. I am very thankful to their efforts which have given me the pride of standing here today and grabbing this award. It sustains the positioning of Le Gray, Beirut as a leader and trendsetter in luxury focused on attention to the smallest details which make all the difference in the guest's comfort, satisfaction and pleasant experience."
